

green spa | news

ecofriendly skin and spa products and therapies

HOLISTIC HYDRATION

The Sensiderm Stress Protect Cream from Dr. med Christine Schrammek is a great product to offer those clients who suffer from extremely dry skin. It is a day and night emollient cream for dry and irritated skin types that contains precious active ingredients that immediately diminish stress symptoms and help reduce the skin's sensitivity to external irritants, says the company. The conscientious cream contains no perfumes, alcohol, parabens, coloring agents, PEG derivatives or mineral oils. www.schrammek.de

DAYTIME RENEWAL

Ossetra's Anti-Oxidant Day Crème revitalizes and nourishes skin, making it supple, radiant and luminous. Made up of iceberg water with a pH of 5 and age fighting antioxidants, Anti-Oxidant Day Crème contains no toxins, parabens and is 100 percent natural and organic, says the company. www.ossetra.ca

NATURAL NOURISHMENT

Feed skin with the Herb Rich Oil from De La Terre Skincare®, a serum that goes beyond moisturizing the skin. The creative composition of herbs protects and restores injured skin, reduces inflammation, manages oil and replenishes chronic dehydration, says the company. www.delaterreskincare.com

GENTLE RUBDOWN

Bio-Origin® treatment formulas contain optimal doses of state-of-the-art ingredients and are derived from natural plant and mineral sources. The refreshing Silky Massage Gel is light and airy in texture with an enduring glide that contains natural oils of sunflower, grape seed, safflower seed and a rich combination of shea and mango butters, says the company. All Bio Origin massage products are eco-certified. www.biooriginexperience.com

